We currently have 67 members.

Old Business:

1. Ed Henry, Dave McCarty and Tom Zarosinski did more research on a clay pigeon thrower. After some discussion, the item was tabled. Tom will review the information gathered and will give a recommendation at the next meeting.
2. Ed presented the amended by-laws for a Lifetime Membership. Jeff made a motion to approve the amendment as written. Ed seconded the motion. All approved.
3. The draft Summer-Fall 2022 newsletter was reviewed. Some minor changes and additions were identified. Kellie will finalize and get to Richard W. for distribution to club members.
4. A spring center fire shoot is scheduled for May 13th. Jeff, Delbert, and John will be the coordinators. Ed will be the safety range officer.

New Business:

1. Jeff Hedlund's office donated $50 to cover the clubs Corporate Tax.
2. A spring workday is scheduled for April 8.
3. On April 22nd the range will be closed for a Hunter Education class.
4. The range will be closed for the motorcycle group June 16 – 18. They plan to pull stumps on the south side for additional parking and to put in another gate.
5. Moving forward the monthly club meetings will be at the bowling alley.
6. Jeff worked with Bureau of Land Management Ranger Blake Dornbush on a membership and payment in order for Ranger Dornbush to conduct firearms instruction at the range.
7. Dave McCarty will be using the range on Wednesday afternoons, thru the spring, for Trap Club practice. John will work with Dave on finding a location at the range to store the trap thrower.

Good of the order:

1. There's a gun show at the Fairgrounds in Lakeview on April 15 and 16.
2. David Hoskin has a new WMGC hat; #18. Congratulations.

Brad adjourned the meeting at 1901.
